BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Now the general discussion on the Budget will continue.

(Several Members rose).

Mr. SPEAKER.—I think I will have to use my discretion today and tomorrow ; as per rule 123 (3) I will have to prescribe the time-limit. I request Members not to exceed 15 minutes, of course with the exception of a few.

Sri T. MARIAPPA (Mysore North).—I submit the entire day tomorrow also may be set apart for speeches by members and the reply by the Ministers may be given on Monday.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Perhaps one of the Honourable Ministers may reply today and the rest tomorrow. The Chief Minister will give his reply tomorrow.

Sri Mulka GOVINDA REDDY (Chitaldrug).—In view of the voluminous speech delivered by the Chief Minister while presenting the Budget to this House and in view of the fact that importance is being focussed on various proposals that have been set out in this speech, is it not necessary, Sir, that a day should be extended for a full-fledged debate on this important subject ?

Mr. SPEAKER.—In fact on all the previous occasions only three days were allotted for this purpose. But this time, four days are allotted and if it is extended by one day more, there will not be ten days for the voting of demands. That is my difficulty. On the 22nd March, perhaps there may not be any meeting because there will be elections.

Sri Mulka GOVINDA REDDY.—Two days' business may be postponed to April.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Money Bills will have to be finished during this month itself.

Sri Mulka GOVINDA REDDY.—Sir, the Government have been pleased to place before the members of this House a copy of the report of the Special Committee which investigated into the circumstances leading to the breaching of Sangenahalli and Tuppadahalli tanks in Jagalur Taluk of the Chitaldrug District along with the Government order thereon. I would urge that a full-fledged debate on this important report should take place in this House. I would request the Speaker to fix a day for a debate on this report.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I will have to consult the Leader of the House. He has just gone out and if he gives his consent and if the House so desires, that will be taken up next month.
